

GLOBAL YOUTH FOR JUSTICE

10 steps for change

Ten international webinars featuring voices from activism, journalism, research, and cooperation across multiple European and African countries, to connect young people, exchange ideas, and provide tools to empower them as agents of change. To participate, please register for each webinar individually.

For info get in contact with: educazione@weworld.it

1

21/10
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Youth in Climate Action

Boniface Harrison, Kenya

We will discover new tools for climate action to bring awareness, mobilization and advocacy to influence policies in digital platforms and in climate-smart agriculture.

2

23/10
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Climate negotiations

Martin Ojok, Uganda

How can young people effectively engage in climate negotiations? Starting from successful stories, we will discuss practical tools to step into these spaces with confidence and strategy.

3

4/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Ecocide & Climate litigations

Matteo Silvano & Filippo Garelli, Italy

Can recognising ecocide as an international crime and resorting to climate litigation be useful tools for addressing the environmental impact of armed conflict and climate change on vulnerable people?

This webinar is realised in collaboration with Rotte del Clima, funded by Cariplo.

4

6/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Disability and Climate Change

Shamim Nampijja, Uganda

We will discuss the intersections of disability, gender and climate risks and possibilities for building inclusive equitable climate actions.

5

10/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Cost of Fast Fashion on our Climate

Janet Chemitei, Austria

A g-local analysis of the fast fashion industry's impact on the planet.

To be confirmed

Co-funded by the European Union

6

12/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

COP30: a chance for civil society to be heard?

Angelika Derfler, Austria

An overview of why climate conferences still matter, the key role of civil society, and what is currently happening at COP30 in Belém, including the main demands shaping the negotiations.

7

18/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Just transitions

Brian Seroney, Kenya

How can we address the challenges of societies and development? We will investigate the possibilities of effective governance and structures that empower communities.

8

20/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Advocacy in action

Honolina Beda Lyimo, Tanzania

Explore how youth can be protagonists in decision-making processes through practical digital tools to amplify voices, influence policies, and drive social change in communities.

9

24/11
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

COP30: Climate and Migrations

Lydia Wanja Kingery, Kenya, Erika Moranduzzo, Italy

Climate changes have multifaced impacts from gender and reproductive rights to climate-induced migration. These intersections are addressed at the global negotiations such as COPs: explore how they work and discuss the results of COP30.

This webinar is realised in collaboration with Rotte del Clima, funded by Cariplo.

10

02/12
3.00 - 4.30 pm CET
4.00 - 5.30 pm EAT
Register here

Climate action and gender equality

Irene Julius Kyanzi, Tanzania

An examination of how young people can actively engage in climate action and gender equality by combining activism, advocacy and international cooperation.