Moderator: Federico Daddato, Lai-momo, Italy

Opening of the virtual round table and presentation of the objectives and the agenda.

A Small Utopia: DCYDE! in Practice!

Speaker: Franziska Weiland, EWNT, Germany

An introduction to DCYDE!'s educational vision and approach to Digital Global Citizenship Education (GCE), illustrated through a youth-led podcast co-created by university students from Germany, Chile and Ghana. The presentation will showcase how intercultural dialogue and digital collaboration are translated into practice within the project.

Global Citizenship in Higher Education

Speaker: Massimiliano Tarozzi, University of Bologna

An inspiring contribution by Massimiliano Tarozzi, UNESCO Chair in Global Citizenship Education in Higher Education at the University of Bologna and Co-Chair of the ANGEL Network, a leading international network advancing research, policy and practice in GCE.

15:40 Coffee break: 10 minutes

Part II - 15:50

Collaboratorum: A Sovereign Digital Space for GCE and collaboration

Speaker: Carola Wlodarski, EWNT, Germany

Presentation of Collaboratorum as a secure, ethical, and sovereign digital environment supporting transnational cooperation and youth engagement.

PANEL DISCUSSION: How can DCYDE! foster meaningful exchange across Europe and the Global South in the AI era?

Moderator: Federico Daddato, Lai-momo, Italy

Speakers:

- Max Zimani, President of platform SLOGA, Slovenia
- Elarbi Imad, President of the Moroccan Center for Civic Education
- Massimiliano Tarozzi, Full Professor of General Pedagogy at the University of Bologna
- Marthese Formosa, DCYDE! General GCE Coordinator, Kopin

Drawing on their experience in Global Citizenship Education, panellists will reflect on the contribution of DCYDE! to strengthening meaningful dialogue, transnational collaboration and Digital GCE across Europe and the Global South. Brief insights from project-country representatives will enrich the discussion with national perspectives, challenges and solutions.

Concluding Remarks
